

TO GUARD OUR RIGHTS

UNITED STATES NAVY TO BE REPRESENTED ON THE GULF.

MARBLEHEAD TO SAIL AT ONCE

WILMINGTON TO FOLLOW SHORTLY AND ANNAPOLIS LATER.

Marblehead's Headquarters Will Be at Port au Prince, Hayti, to Which Place Germany Has Threatened to Send a Cruiser.

Washington, Nov. 30.—In the opinion of the administration the time is now ripe for a renewal of the practice of having the United States navy represented in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea. For several years past, save an occasional cruiser sent with haste on her way to or from the South Atlantic station, not a vessel of the navy has gone beyond the southern waters of Florida, for the reason that the presence of United States war vessels in the neighborhood of the Spanish Antilles might have served to create an erroneous impression as to the attitude of the United States toward the Cuban insurgents, and might have tended to complicate the relations between the United States and Spain at a time when it was desired that no outside influences should be brought into play. Now, however, with the improvement in conditions in Cuba and the continued existence of good relations between the two governments, the navy department is about to let some of the smaller vessels of the navy go into West Indian waters during the present winter season.

The Marblehead, now at Annapolis, will start southward as soon as she has concluded her work in connection with the trial of the torpedo boat Winslow. She will go to Navassa to look into the condition of the United States citizens who are working on that island. Nothing has been heard from that place officially for some time, and it is deemed proper to inquire into allegations of abuses in treatment of workmen there. While engaged in this inspection the Marblehead will make her headquarters at Port au Prince, on the west coast of Hayti, and will be charged with the protection of American interests generally in that section of the West Indies.

This statement, which comes from the department of state, is taken to mean that the commander will see that our interests are protected in the event that the German government proceeds forcibly to punish Hayti for the arrest of Luaders.

The Wilmington, also, is to be sent southward, but first will be docked and overhauled. She will touch at Guadalupe, and after a stay in tropical waters will continue on to the South Atlantic station. The gunboat Annapolis, now transformed into a training ship, is slated for the trip into the Gulf during the winter, with a number of naval apprentices aboard.

Reports that came to the state department late in the afternoon from Hayti were to the effect that considerable excitement prevailed there and that the situation was grave. For this reason it was determined to hasten the departure of the Marblehead and the naval officers were communicated with to the effect that the American appearance to prevail in Port au Prince that a German warship was rapidly approaching the place. Of course it is stated that the Marblehead goes solely for the purpose of protecting American interests and that it might be threatened by the outbreak of disorders in Hayti. The latest advice from German sources, however, indicate that no occasion will be given for conflict between the United States and Germany on account of the Haytian difficulty and that the matter will be adjusted.

It developed to-day that Hayti had sent a reply to Germany's demands, which is regarded as remarkable in view of the difference in size of the two powers. The Haytian note makes it clear that the republic is ready to discuss the merits of the controversy, but does not desire to have Germany pass judgment in the first place, demand an indemnity, and thereafter discuss the merits. Moreover, Hayti gives notice to Germany that the German charge d'affaires to Hayti, Max de Meunier, is persona non grata, and that it is impossible for Hayti to conduct further relations with him. It is stated that he is threatened with going directly before the president of Hayti, and in loud and angry tone and insulting manner threatened to demand an immediate repatriation were made to Germany. This personal affront to Hayti's executive, however, is regarded as an honor and self-respect of the country, and is felt to call for an apology. Under such circumstances, it is believed that Germany expressed a willingness to negotiate a settlement of the entire case at Berlin, thus removing it from the hands of the objectionable German official now in Hayti.

WON'T SEND A WARSHIP.

Germany Reconsiders Her Plan to Force Hayti to Pay an Indemnity.

Berlin, Nov. 30.—The German government has abandoned its intention of sending the warship Gefion to Port au Prince, Hayti, to enforce the demands for the payment of indemnity to Germany for the arrest of the German warship. The Gefion, instead, will be sent to reinforce the German fleet in Chinese waters.

Baron von Bulow, the German minister for foreign affairs, to-day gave the United States ambassador, Mr. D. W. Foster, a wholly satisfactory explanation of Germany's intention toward Hayti.

His Gas Company Confirmed in the Monopoly Given It by Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—The court of common pleas to-day refused to enjoin the mayor and other city officials from executing the lease of the city gas works to the United Gas Improvement Company for a period of thirty years. A bill in equity to restrain the city from executing the lease had been filed by certain citizens to test the legality of the ordinance recently adopted by the city council, which the United Gas Improvement Company secured control of the city gas works for thirty years and obtained an exclusive franchise for the supplying of gas for that period, to consumers throughout the city and of lighting city streets, etc. The United Gas Improvement Company

Scrofula Eruptions

Little Girl the Victim of Impure Blood—Suffered Intensely Until Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"When three months old, my little daughter had eruptions on her face. It was obliged to keep her hands tied at night and it was necessary to watch her during the day. She would scratch herself whenever she got the chance, until her clothes would be covered with blood. We concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, because I had great faith in it, and after awhile we could see that she was getting better. People often asked 'How did that child burn her face?' and they said she would certainly be left with scars, but she was not. It is now a year since she was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and her face is as smooth and white and soft as that of any child." Mrs. WILBUR WELLS, Warren, Conn.
